

NATHALIE SIMAN

GUATEMALA

Nathalie Siman is a Guatemalan jewelry designer. She makes pieces in his studio located on the outskirts of Guatemala City; a quiet area that allows you to be inspired by the quiet silence of nature.

Driven by imagination and in search of meaning, her jewelry constantly seeks to be a catalyst for beauty. It moves through a world of alchemy, using noble materials forged by hand to transform into beautiful and attractive pieces. These pieces go beyond the material world; They come from your life experiences, insights, and a spiritual quest.

Organic shapes and unique designs echo with our mother nature. This reminds us that each piece is faithful to the purity of its materials and also to the processes it undertakes.
